Easter 2009

I would like to wish all of you and your family at home and abroad a very happy Easter. May the light of the risen Lord enlighten and enrich you and bring you his peace. I would like to offer a huge thank you to all the people involved throughout Lent and especially during the Holy week and the Easter Services, for all their kind support, hard work, and dedicated service. There are too many people to mention from all the communities to worship here, too many who minister here and in so many ways, publically and privately, too many kind offers, from feeding me to doing the laundry, etc., etc., too many willing helpers in so many ways, to mention you all. Please be assured, although your names have not been recorded here that does not lessen my sense of gratitude to you all. Of course the Easter celebrations can only happen because of the help and dedication of so many, and they can only become so beautiful and meaningful because of your involvement. I will not pretend that it has not been tiring, it has, but it has also been so worthwhile. The motto of his Parish is 'we are all in this together' and I think we surely demonstrated that this week. Let us continue to walk as Easter people together in the Lord.

Canonisation of Fr. Damien

The Pilgrimage to Rome has now been filled, if you are still interested in going you will have to let me have your form back this week and we will do all we can to add you on by looking for extra spaces. Tours for Churches can't guarantee the same price, but will do all they can to keep it the same so if you are thinking of coming, you must have your form and £100 deposit into me this week many thanks .

Gift Aid from Sunday 19 April

Next years boxes will be issued. Please inform organiser or Priest if there is any change in circumstances whereby income tax paid will not cover any claim fully. Thank you for your contributions to the running of the Parish.

Traidcraft

Traidcraft will be in the sacristy after all the masses this week. Due to circumstances beyond our control it could not have been held last week, sorry for the inconvenience.

Holy Shop Closed for holidays from 4 April to 25 April

If Masses or Mass Cards required call at the Presbytery.
